

Annual Report of Economics Department
Session 2013-14

For Session 2013-14 there are 69 students in post-graduate Department of Economics. And 434 students which are studying in under graduate in Economics. Department have been conducted seminars and group discussion in class room, on various topics of economics which are consort with the university syllabus. Department have been conducted monthly unit test for internal evaluation of students.

Department of Economics organized Inaugural function of subject association on first session of collage by the hands of Shree S.G.Ande